

This page: Dwan makes a gentle nod to Shaker style throughout her family's holiday home. It is seen in the 'hippie room' (top), where hats, bags, a wall light and mirror hang on a simple peg rail, and in one of the bathrooms (middle left). Shaker meets Modernism in the dorm, meanwhile, where Dwan has mixed Le Corbusier wall lamps by Nemo with a trio of cherry-wood beds designed by her and made by Riva 1920 (bottom). Similarly there is a motif evident in the garden planting, with penstemon and gaura (middle right) making repeat appearances throughout. Here

1 Clare Woods and Des Hughes have John Tunnard's Holiday (right) from the 'School Prints' series above their cooker

The remaining 85 editions cost £500 each and an exhibition of the works at the gallery continues until 3 June. 2 White towels don't cut the mustard when you can have ones in... mustard, like those in the Hereford house (page 213). Chartreuse 'Christy Supima' cost from £4. Visit debenhams.com.

3 Green with envy over Clare Woods and Des Hughes's sitting-room fireplace (page 210)? This olive-tiled 'Edwardian' insert and hearth from Twentieth Century Fireplaces costs £1,380. Ring 0161 429 9042, or visit c20fireplaces.co.uk.

5 Fittings are spare in Terry Dwan's Italian home, but they are the best of the best. Le Corbusier's '1949/52' light, £705, is seen in the living room (page 154) and dorm (page 157). Ring Naken on 01986 781663, or visit naken.co.uk.

6 Given their house's sunny spot, Terry Dwan's family can likely be found outside on the 'Maui' (middle; from £2,869 approx) and 'Bora Bora' chairs (from £3,751 approx; page 153). Both were designed by the architect for Riva 1920 – as was her 'Betty' bench (top; from £3,184 approx). Ring Heal's on 020 7896 7534, or visit heals.co.uk ■
